Almighty God, who has given us this good land for our heritage: We humbly beseech Thee that we may always prove ourselves to be a people mindful of Thy favor and glad to do Thy will. Bless our land with honorable industry and sound learning. Save us from violence, discord, and confusion; from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way. ### WELCOME TO THE REVEREND PIERCE W. KLEMMT

(Mr. RIGGS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. RIGGS. Mr. Speaker, I want to take just a moment to welcome a very special person, the Reverend Pierce Klemmt, who is our guest chaplain today and just gave our opening prayer.

Rev. Pierce Wittfield Klemmt was born in 1949 in Cincinnati. He received his undergraduate degree from Wabash College and his Master in Divinity from Yale University.

Following his ordination, Pierce served as the Associate Rector of St. Mark's Church in Evanston, Illinois, and then as Rector of Trinity Church in Troy, Ohio, and Christ Church in Springfield, Missouri. He has been the rector of Christ Church in Alexandria since 1994.

This is a very special and historic church. Throughout its history, Christ Church has played a significant role as a parish attended by General George Washington and later by General Robert E. Lee. It remains today one of the largest Episcopal Churches in the United States, with over 3,000 parishioners, many of whom are active leaders in the government, military, and corporate world.

The church's mission is centered in serving the poor, voiceless, and those in trouble. Outreach programs and missions overseas in Russia, Africa, and Central America are amply served by this committed and talented congregation.

Again, we are delighted to welcome Reverend Klemmt today. He is married to the former Mary Tuke Gates of Louisville, Kentucky, my birthplace, and
